

April 22, 1909

✓ CHARLES KRUEGER

Charles Krueger, who lived west of Ferney died of pneumonia early Monday morning, funeral services occurring on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Krueger was an old timer, and a good, substantial citizen. For many years he was employed by A. W. Krueger. He is survived by a widow and several children.

Deceased was born in West Prussia in 1855. Came to Renville County, Minn. in 1882, and to Groton a year later. Though not related to A. W. Krueger, the latter honors his memory by saying: "He was with me for 12 years, and I never had a better man."

He married Otelia Jahnke in 1893, and a little later they began the development of the fine home farm, which contains three quarter sections.